

SENIOR LOGISTICS ANALYST

Sterling Heights, MI

Education: Bachelors Degree, information systems, Business Management or other related fields is desired. Masters Degree. Training and experience related to Life Cycle Management, Integrated Logistics Support, Acquisition Management, Equipment Sustainment Operations, and Performance Based Logistics is desirable.

Required Skills:

- 12 Years of general logistics experience, of which 8 years must be specialized (Supply / Maintenance Support)
- 6 Years of general experience of which 3 years must be specialized.

Duties: Provide functional expertise in research, evaluation, analysis and development of automated logistics systems. Perform analysis of logistics specific functional subject areas. Analyze user needs to determine integrated requirements for supply, maintenance, transportation and related logistics services. Must be able to research and articulate developmental concepts in all areas of wholesale and retail logistics and related business processes. Develop and implement improvement actions in the areas of equipment maintenance, material management, transportation and other related logistical functions. Provide reports, presents briefings, conducts training sessions, and participate in conferences / meetings associated with the logistics project.

REFERENCE: #070917-AS
SEND RESUMES TO: resumes@innolog.com
LOCATION: Washington, DC

www.innolog.com